See the seller’s listing for full details and description of We aim to supply the best quality parts we can, we describe things accurately and hope that you have a good experience when buying from us. As you can see we have amazing feedback from nearly all of our buyers, we have hundreds of comments about our honesty, politeness, service and willingness to help whenever we can. We are clearly not in it for the quick buck; we value our reputation and the feelings of people who buy from us. We hate to disappoint as we know from our own experiences how frustrating it can get when fixing problems with cars. Whilst we make every effort to ensure we don’t make mistakes, on rare occasions, mistakes are made, we are only human after all. The important thing is that we rectify any mistakes we make. Here is the process you are agreeing to when buying from us.We will advise where we can but ultimately it is YOUR decision.Signing for an item as UNCHECKED is always risky and is not acceptable.You are of course entitled to return it to us under the following understandingIf no warranty period is detailed in the advert then the standard 30 days from date of reciept will apply.We will only issue a refund for a returned part if it is OUR part that you actually return. Part dismantling of the goods or removal of the identifying marks will render your warranty VOID.If we supply you a part and it fails in the warranty period we are not in any way liable for any associated costs, be it removal and refitting costs, loss of business reputation or work.Warranties are only valid if you have proof that a new cam belt was fitted prior to installation if applicable.

Warranties supplied only cover the head, block, crank and sump, it does not cover bolt on components such as turbos, alternators, pumps, belts, pulley, idlers, water pipes, fans, thermostats or mountings. These units are not covered by warranties, purely because there is no way of knowing whether your car is faulty and could have damaged the units during fitting. We always check the electrics before dismantling. You have to trust us that these work, we are a reputable seller and don’t want to tarnish our excellent reputation selling broken parts.Youre covered by the eBay Money Back Guarantee if you receive an item that is not as described in the listing. I do feel strongly that some information should be free to owners of jeeps. Parts diagrams part numbers and basic information should be provided by the manufactures. It isnt fair that you procure a product and have to pay for information that should be provided free of charge. Wjjeeps.com is very good but if it had full exploded views of the wj with full part numbers, it would be great. Forcing owners to scratch around for information from all sorts. Diesel 3.1 RHD wj 2001 is a PITA to get information for. Haynes cover petrol lhd but not mine. Ive bought on line manuals that turned out to be lhd petrol zjs Why cant the manufacture of jeeps provide in this day and age full details free of charge. Like the way jeep.com can supply build sheets very impressed with this Morris4x4 centre is good too so the informations is in public domain in one way or the other.This bugs me big time as I feel its a rip off. I watched a tv program on those that illegally downloaded music, studies discovered these very same people bought 3 times more legal copies than those who never illegally downloaded. Same would go for technical manuals we buy more parts increase 2nd hand resale value and make it more attractive to new owners to buy a jeep knowing they get a fair price when selling. Could be win win for everyone. Sorry for long rantYou currently have 0 posts.
